Arrival

As you drive into Kent Ridge Hill Residences, it seems like you have entered into another world. Your world. Where the sound of rushing waters from the waterfall wall feature creates an inviting escape from the bustle of the city. And the elegant arrival foyer sets the mood for a sophisticated welcome.

One with nature, home of stature

Elevated above road level to heighten its exclusivity, Kent Ridge Hill Residences is designed to be one with its natural surroundings. Comprising luxury residences and strata landed houses, revel in the choice of unit types for every lifestyle need. Inspired by the sense of space that nature brings, all first-storey residences will have high ceilings, while top-storey residences enjoy more generous living and dining spaces.

Nature of luxury, naturally yours

Inspired by its hillside landscape, the signature design elements of Kent Ridge Hill Residences are cascading terraces, cantilevered features, and floating platforms. Waterfall Canyon

This is your sanctuary within your haven. Luxurious pools beckon with their promise of leisure and relaxation. Trails are scented and hidden by exotic flora. And pockets of play are expertly planned to maximise enjoyment, while maintaining the ambience of tranquillity.

Artist's impression

"[A house] should be of the hill. Belonging to it.
Hill and house should live together, each the happier for the other."

- Frank Lloyd Wright

The Floating Gym

One of Kent Ridge Hill Residences' distinguished highlights. This feature brings to mind the architectural masterpiece called Falling Water by Frank Lloyd Wright, one of the American Masters of Architecture. Cantilevered over water features, it reminds one of waterfalls cascading from rocks.

The Party Deck

When big parties and feasting are not on the menu, the Party Deck is the ideal place to get together for casual socialising. Comfy seats, cosy ambience, great friends, wine and cheese all around... just the perfect recipe for a night to remember.

Many may search for tranquillity. Here, tranquillity finds you, every day and even before you step into your home.
The wind in the trees, the chirping of birds, the peacefulness.
These are the sounds of nature. And they invite you to come home.

The master plan for future success

Greater Southern Waterfront

Imagine a prime waterfront site, three times the size of Marina Bay. That is the untold potential of Singapore's Master Plan for the Greater Southern Waterfront. With over 1,000ha of prime land, the Greater Southern Waterfront will stretch from Marina South and Tanjong Pagar, all the way to Pasir Panjang.

While still in its initial stages, six ideas have been proposed for the Greater Southern Waterfront. These ideas will take the way we live to a whole new level. They will also take into account Singapore's direction towards an environmentally-friendly society, and one that is future-ready. As exciting as these ideas are, they only serve to lay the groundwork for what will be Singapore's model waterfront precinct for the world.

CBD expansion

Water resources

More nature

More recreation spots

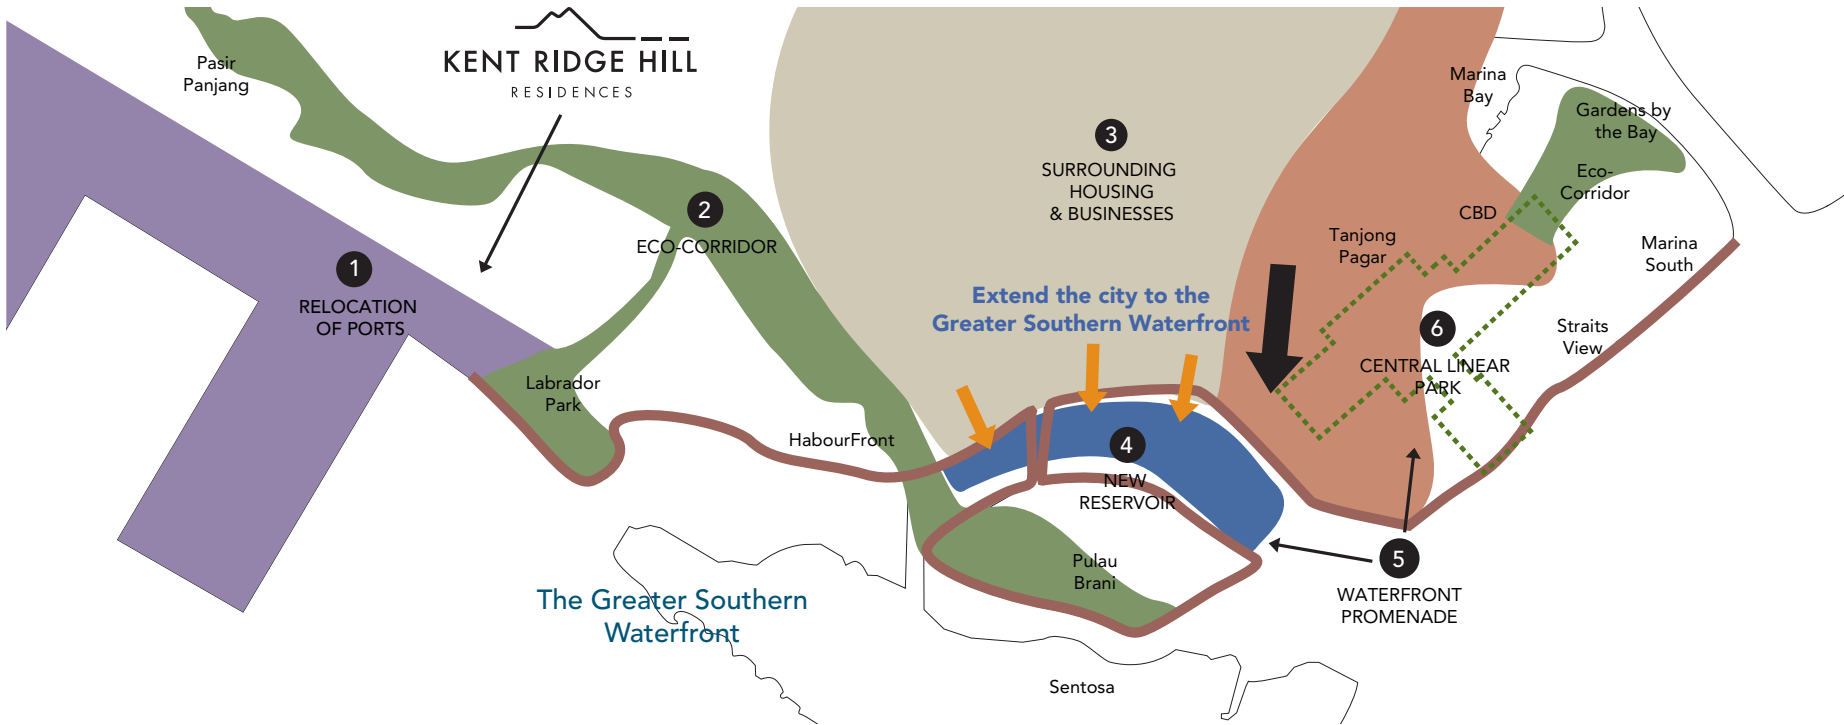

Waterfront boardwalks

More vibrancy and life

New waterfront districts

The time is now

By knowing the potential, scale and direction of the Greater Southern Waterfront, the next step would be to seize advantage of being among the first to be part of it. You will be in an enviable position with a new city rising right in front of you. This new city will be the culmination of Singapore's most ambitious master plan. And you could already begin reaping its rewards once it picks up the momentum.

1 More new waterfront districts

Tanjong Pagar Terminal has already moved to Pasir Panjang. In a few years' time, all port activities will be centralised at Tuas. And the seafront districts of Tanjong Pagar and Pasir Panjang could be home to unique lifestyle concepts that will capitalise on their waterfront location.

2 More nature and recreation spots

To strengthen Singapore's "city in a garden" status, more parks and gardens will be planned. New green eco-corridors could connect the major nature recreational areas to new and existing ones.

3 More room for the Central Business District (CBD)

The present CBD, Marina Bay and its surrounding areas could be expanded into the Greater Southern Waterfront. There could be further growth in bringing work places closer to home.

4 More ways to maximise water resources

As Singapore strives towards self-sustainability in water resources, a new reservoir could be planned for the Greater Southern Waterfront and could well be the next recreational hotspot. Thoughtfully planned canals could also work with the environment, while enhancing the new city with natural aesthetic.

5 More opportunities to be closer to the water

The South-West has one of Singapore's most scenic views of the sea. To take advantage of this, a continuous 30km waterfront promenade could be built to link Labrador Park, Harbourfront, Marina South and Gardens by the Bay.

6 More vibrancy and life

Existing parks could be extended to encourage people to jog, stroll, cycle and simply enjoy more of the outdoors. More car-free pedestrian boulevards could be planned for a more colourful and vibrant street life.
